Data Protection and Privacy

We gather and hold the following information on our members through our membership form. Members are asked to complete this form when they join the choir.

We only use these details for choir purposes such as maintaining a membership record or sending updates for choir administration such as concert, rehearsal & meeting information. Contact details may be shared as necessary with Committee members, but we will never pass on personal data to other third parties without the member's explicit consent.

Membership Details

Please would you complete all the details below for our records.

We will only use these details for choir purposes such as maintaining a membership record or sending updates for choir administration such as concert, rehearsal & meeting information. Contact details may be shared as necessary with Committee members, but we will never pass on personal data to other third parties without your explicit consent.

Please return the completed form by email to membership-secretary@lbfs.org.uk at your earliest convenience. Alternatively, please pass to Roger at the next choir rehearsal.

Many thanks.
